"Kerosene Accident.—Last night, Sabrina Rayner, (col.,) living on East Hargett Street, was badly burned, if not fatally so, by the breaking of a kerosene lamp. It seems a woman passing through the room with the lamp in her hand accidentally dropped it, when she attempted to throw the broken burning mass out of the house, but in her excitement threw it in the lap of the other woman, Sabrina, who was sitting on the porch, the flame quickly ignifing her clothing, which was not put out until she was badly burned. She is in a critical condition to-day."—Daily Sentinel, Raicigh, N. C., May 27, 1874.

The same rule might well apply to lesser lights. The loud explosion last night, supposed to have been by the compositors of the News office, from a mountain howitzer, proved to be the firing of a Johnson's watch gun which Dr. Blacknell of the Yarborough House had placed in position to protect the health of his chickens in the coop. The colored man that knocked down two panels of fence in jumping over, in Hayti about three minutes after the explosion, is supposed to have been the one that ran against the string. "MURDER MOST FOUL."-Apex was the scene yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock of a bloody transaction, which caused the most intense excitement among the people of that part of Wake county. The particu-lars as far as we could ascertain are follows:

The perpetrator of the horrible deed is a colored man about 25 years of age, named Merritt Dennis. Dennis has been in the employ of Mr. Sims Mann, a farmer, residing about a mile from Apex, and has heretofore borne a good character.

After dinner yesterday Dennis went to his wife, who was at work in a cornfield, and requested her to quit work, and go to the house, as he wished a pair of pants mended. She refused to obey his request, whereupon a quarrel ensued. During the quarrel it is alleged the woman struck him with a hoe she had been at work with. After being struck he wrested the hoe from his wife and dealt her a blow in the forehead, which split her skull open, causing death in an hour afterwards. When brought to Raleigh this morning the wretched creature seemed to be deeply affected, and says he had

time: Statesville, the county seat of Iredell, is an exceedingly pretty little town, situated on the Western North Carolina Railroad, about 30 miles from Salisbury, and is the present terminus of the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Railroad. Being built upon an elevated ridge of country, and surrounded by magnificent forests of oaks, its location is both healthful and beautiful. The climate is nearly as bracing as that of the immediate mountain section, and much more uniform. Many of the residences are situated in tastefully arranged yards of shrubbery and flowers, and the streets are well shaded by projecting elms and oaks. From the rolling character of the surface a number of the houses as viewed from a distance have the appearance of being built upon the hill sides. Marked evidences of improvement and prosperity are seen on every side in the shape of handsome buildings just completed and others in course of construction. The most striking edifice in the town is the large and handsome Simonton Female College, which stands at the head of Main street and occupies the highest position in the town. From the cupola of this imposing structure an extensive view is presented. The eye encompasses not only the town beneath and picturesque country immediately surrounding, but even the South and Black mountains far to the West, the Brushy and Blue Ridge ranges to the North, Kings mountain in South Carolina, 75 miles to the southwest and Pilots peak the same distance to the northeast. This school is ably conducted under the management of the Rev. T. S. Martin and his accomplished wife, the daughter of the Hon. A. W. Venable, of Oxford. Being the central point of trade for not only Iredell county, but an extensive back mountain country, embracing many counties, a conside rable business is carried on. The whosale and retail dry goods house of Messrs. Wallace Bros. & Stevenson sell annually $200,000 worth of goods. A novel enterprise carried on by this firm is the trading in roots, herbs and leaves of various kinds of a medicinal nature. A large ware-house is set apart specially for this purpose under the management of Mr. J. H. Hyams. Many thousand tons are annually exported to the principal northern and canadian markets. There are as many as 407 different varieties, bringing from one to one hundred and forty cents per pounds. From these roots and herbs are made some of the most celebrated drugs known within the materia medica. The country surrounding presents unsurpassed advantages for manufacturing purposes, being threaded by numerous forcible streams, and thickly covered with timber. With the delightful climate, favorable location and hospitality of Statesville, it is quite a desirable place of residence and any one

COLLINS AND BLALOCK, THE CON-DEMNED.—Yesterday we visited the cell of the alleged murderers, Collins and Blalock, in Wake county jail. They have been convicted and sent-enced to death upon the charge of murdering an old colored man in Johnston county by the name of Allen Jones, in September last. They appealed to the Supreme Court for a new trial, but the appeal was refused and at the last term of Johnston Superior Court, were resentenced by Judge Watts to be hung on Friday, well respited the sentence till the 19th of June. Upon entering the cell, the prisoners recognised us as the reporter present on their trial, and at once became very communicative as to the incidents connected with the trial.

May 27th. Upon the application of their spiritual advisors, Gov. Cald-

Collins is a white man about thirty years of age, of moderate intelligence, with but little or no education. He is a married man with five small children and a young wife, who are entirely dependent upon him for a support. He and Blalock, his colored accessory, occupies the same cell in the upper story of the jail, and each are manacled with strong irons, confining their legs sufficiently to allow them to walk about the room.

Collins spoke freely about his approaching doom and said had no confidence, or even a hope of a pardon or reprieve, but asserted most positively he would go to the gallows an innocent man; that he was not only guiltless of the crime of murder, but had not received a just and fair trial. He asked us if there was a case on record wherein a man being tried for his life had his counsel ruled down by the presiding judge to a limitation of fortyfive minutes, as was done in his case. He seemed to be more hurt about the attempt made to prove that he had been implicated in corn stealing before this murder was said to have been committed than the charge of which he was convicted. He said in reply to our question, if he was not aware of this disturbance, going on that night at old man Allen Jones' house, he being so close at had, "I can only say I am not guilty of the murder of that man, I did not do it." He was in very good spirits considering the circumstances and looking much better in body than the day he was convicted. Blalock, the colored man, is about 25 years of age, bright ginger cake color, and a married man with three children. He is rather more dejected than Collins, and is evidently making more energetic preparations for the world to come than his fellowprisoner. He was, however, very communicative, and expressed the same views of Collins in regard to the injustice he had received on his trial. We asked him if he had the same statement to make in regard to the murder of Jones as that made by Mr. Collins. He replied by asking us if after hearing all the evidence in the case we believed him guilty. We replied that our opinion would be worth nothing; twelve sworn men, most of whom were his own color, had said so. Then says he, "I shall say nothing here or on not in men. Twelve men says I am guilty, and three Supreme Court Judges sustained them; therefore my assertion to the contrary will avail nothing. I shall not here or hereafter make any confession or denial, but throw all my trust in God," &c. Blalock does not desire a further respite, and says he is ready for what

THE PROPOSED LITERARY ENTER-TAINMENTS.—We are glad to learn from the Secretary of the Executive Committee, Mr. J. R. Hampton, that he has received favorable responses from a number of our leading literary citizens to aid in the proposed liter ary entertainments for the benefit of the Louisiana sufferers. The Wilmington Star of yesterday says in regard to this movement:

"The Raleighites propose to have a series of literary entertainments for the benefit of the sufferers from the flood in Louisiana. The News says Maj. Seaton Gales, Hon. T. C. Fuller and Rev. Father McNamara have already consented to deliver fifteen minute lectures and it is believed that other prominent literary men of the city will lend a helping hand.

"This object is worthy of the best effort of our people, to whom we commend the example of the citizens of Raleigh. We have the orators, the public spirit of benevolence and the population, in which latter respect we have much the advantage of our sister city." ODD FELLOWSHIP.—Grand Master, S. W. Chamberlain, of the I.O. F. has re-established Eurek. Lodge No. 7, of Newbern, and it is now in a prosperous condition with a membership of 63.

The Grand excursion, (heretofore mentioned) to be gotten up by the Order in the State and to start from the furtherest point west, and end at Beaufort, is being pushed forward and the arrangement will undoubtedly be made. Time and place to be mentioned hereafter.

A dispensation has been applied for the establishment of a new Lodge at Franklinton. The new Grand Master, S. W. Chamberlain, has commenced work in earnest and it is believed that under his administration the order will be largely increased in the State in the next twelve mohths.

Political Rumors from New York. The political caldron in New York has already begun to seethe and bubble. Recorder HACKETT, who has established so enviable a reputation as an upright, fearless Judge, W. B. DUNCAN, an eminent banker, and others, are spoken of as probable Democratic candidates for Mayor of the city. Hon. SAMUEL J. TILDEN, who labored so zealously for the overthrow of TWEED and his associates, is favorably mentioned in connection with the Governorship.

From the other side an astounding rumor reaches us through that enterprising, yet rather sensational journal, the New York Herald. It is said that President GRANT has actually made peace with Senator FENTON and his Liberal Republican allies, and that the Custom House denizens are in danger of overthrow. The abominations of MURPHY, BLISS, JAYNE and other of that ilk, are said to have reached and offended the Presidential nostril, and that he is actually contemplating reform. Imagine the consternation of Collector ARTHUR to see the President in familiar intercourse with FENTON, FREDsinces Corrective, Joseph COCH-RAN and such Liberal Republican worthies.

We do not credit the rumor, but in the world of politics stranger things have happened.

The Decisions of the Chief Justice in Virginia.

Some of our exchanges, in commenting upon the decision of Chief Justice WAITE, delivered in Richmond a few days ago, to the effect that bankrupts in Virginia were not entitled to the homestead exemption allowed by their Constitution, have fallen into a serious mistake concerning the grounds of the decision. The Chief Justice did not intimate that the exemptions allowed by the amendment to the Bankrupt Law were unconstitutional, but simply decided that the new Constitution of Virginia went into effect in April, 1869, and consequently that as the homestead exemption was not in force in January, 1869, the act did not apply. In North Carolina our Constitution went into effect in July, 1868, and the reason does not apply. Virginia, it will be remembered, was reconstructed long after the other Southern States, (except Texas) and did not participate in the Presidential election of 1868. Until the matter shall be decided upon very different grounds, our North Carolina bankrupts need not fear.

The Chief Justice also decided, in conformity to the opinion of Judge BROOKS in this State, that the homestead exemption did not apply to debts existing at the time the Constitution went into effect. In this he agrees with the decision of the United States Courts, and the dissenting opinion of Chief Justice Pearson in Hill vs. Kessler. Fortunately there are few of those old debts yet outstanding, except those between citizens of the State, and which are in great part reduced to judgments in our State Courts. Another decision was of considerable importance to the mercantile portion of the population, and was to this effect. A custom had obtained to a great extent for merchants in settling their accounts with Baltimore and New York houses, to add to their ordinary promissory notes the words, "the benefit of the homestead exemption is hereby waived as against this note." Judge HUGHES had decided in a case involving the validity of the waiver, that as the untarily waive the benefit of his homestead was tantamount to saying he could not alienate or make a lien upon his land. We trust the point will not arise in North Carolina, and we hope that all men, traders or otherwise, who desire to keep homes for their families beyond the reach of their misfortunes, will refuse to sign any note that waives the rights of their wives and children.

The Organ of the Patrons of Husbandry Upon the Farmer's Candidate, E. C. Davidson.

We make no apology for yielding our editorial space to the subjoined article from the State Agricultural Journal, the organ of the Patrons of Husbandry in the State. We did not fear that the sturdy farmers of Mecklenburg, Cabarrus and adjoining counties, could be deceived by the self-styled "farmer's candidate," but we are glad to see his arragant pretensions so suddenly and effectually exploded by the organ of the order. Until the patrons, or grangers become a political organization, and openly enter the arena of politics, we sincerely hope that all the members thereof who attempt to use its machinery and their membership as stepping stones to further their political ambition, will be as neatly disposed of as Mr. DAVIDSON.

If the organization is not kept free from political combinations, it will The whole series will be completed become a refuge for aspiring politi- in forty-eight volumes and will occucians, and a nursery for demagogues. We do not object to the entrance of the farmer in politics, but we protest against his entrance in the disguise of an organization expressly declared to be non-political:

"E. C. Davidson has announced himself an independent candidate for Congress in the Sixth District."-Raleigh News, May 30th.

We suppose that the E. C. Davidson referred to above, is the Steward of the State Grange. And we are obliged to infer, from his course in announcing himself as the "farmers' candidate" for Congress, that he is asking for and presuming upon the support of his brother Patrons of Husbandry, not because of his peculiar fitness for a seat in Congress, but, mainly, because he is a Patron of Husbandry. If he is thus seeking the support and influence of the Granges of his District, then we enter our earnest and emphatic protest against his action, and call upon the members of our Order to rebuke his pretension by ignoring altogether his And this we do entertaining the kindest feelings personally to the worthy Steward. The National Grange, at it recent ession in St. Louis, issued a manifesto of the purposes of the Order so distinct and unexceptionable as to call out expressions of approval and admiration from every party and every interest in the nation. One of that manifesto was the following: "Fifth-We emphatically and sincerely assert the oft-repeated truth taught in our organic law that the Grange, National, State or Subordinate, is not a political or party or-ganization. No Grange, if true to its obligation, can discuss political or religious questions, nor call political conventions, nor nominate candidates, or even discuss their meetings.

the most satisfactory declarations in

What a pitiful evasion of this pledge will be our action if we allow members and officers of our Order to solicit and obtain the votes of Patrons solely on the ground of Grange fraternity!

Segregated as we are by our conditions of residence and occupation, we have founded a National Co-operative Union for our intellectual and social elevation, and for our mutual protection from certain pecuniary burdens that we think the commercial world has unjustly and unnecesessarily laid upon us. These imposi-tions, we think, have been heretofore successfully fastened on our backs by certain secrets of the trade. To rid ourselves of them effectually we are compelled to have our secrets. These secrets are justly the property of our grand co-partnership. We exclude from our deliberations and from our Order all who are not interested in agriculture. We make no apology for this exclusion. We say we are attending simply to our own business in our Order and are not attacking outsiders-not passing any judgment on any rights of outsiders. But what becomes of this triumphant vindication of our right to exclusiveness and secrecy if, with doors closed to our neighbors engaged in other avocations, we select officers to make, interpret and execute laws for them as well as ourselves? Our exclusion secrecy then becomes conspiracy. No! let our noble Order keep entirely aloof from all political contests, avowed or dissembled. Its promises are a new evangel to the tillers of the soil. They are to-day elated with hope of blessings fast ripening to fruition. But the hour the Grange is recognized as a political organization its brilliant career will have ended, of them then becomes tyranny-our

with its mission not fulfilled. Since the foregoing was put in type, we have received the following note from Mr. Davidson. We are glad that Mr. Davidson resigns his offices in the Grange. We think, however, if he will persist in running as the 'farmers' candidate" he ought to withdraw from the Grange altogether, not remaining even a private member of the Order:

Capt. R. T. Fulghum: DEAR SIR:-You will please give notice in the State Agricultural Jour-nal of my resignation of the offices of Steward and State Deputy in the State Grange, P. of H., of North

Yours most resp'y and fraternally, E. C. DAVIDSON.

"The Thistle Edition." Sara Coleridge, the saintly, beautiful and admirable daughter of the illustrious Samuel Taylor Coleridge, was a born critic. In her the critical element was wonderfully developed. Inheriting but little of the genius of her father, she was a woman of very superior abilities and learning, as her writings abundantly testify. When her pure and exalted life was drawing towards its end, we find her rereading the fascinating novels of Sin Walter Scott, and in one of her many able and delightful letters to he friend, Aubrey DeVere, she writes 'As for Scott, I grieve to be nearing the end of his charming productions. They fill a place in literature which they have entirely to themselves. No other books combine the same qualities—so much humor, so much information, so high a tone, varying from the chivalrous to the gentlemanly, and such an out-of-door freshness

Every one should possess a copy of these unique and original productions. As long as pure literature is relished they will be raed with delight, and Scott will keep his place at the head of the story-tellers, and remain supreme for his great powers as a painter of natural scenery and character. INDIGNATION MEETING.-After the adjournment of the Radical Convention yestsrday evening an indignation meeting was organized at the court house, with Duncan Holmes as Chairman. A number of speeches were made denunciatory of the Convention, and a set of very strong resolutions passed, calling for a mass meeting of Republicans at the City Hall on Monday evening for the purpose of nominating a ticket which will represent the Republican party of the county. Many of the most prominent Republicans of the city and county participated in the meetidg, and the dissatisfaction felt at the result of the Convention was expressed in terms most emphatic and deci-

A PLEA FOR UNITED OPPOSITION. The election which is to take place in November next is a most important one; scarcely less so, indeed, than the Presidential election itself. Upon it depends not only the political complexion of the next Congress, but, in all probability, the success or failure of the party in power at the election in 1876. The real victors at the next election will name the successor of Gen. Grant as President of the United States. This consideration alone, without any thought of local issues, should be sufficient to urge upon those of whatever name or creed who find themselves in opposition to the dominant party the necessity of immediate, united, continued action. Nothing stands in the way of the union we urge but traditional fondness for a name on the one hand and traditional dislike to the acceptance of that name on the other. The Democracy look upon the sacrifice of name as the yielding of something time-honored and sacred. The other opponents of the Administration regard the adoption of that name as a concession which involves in the making a reflection upon previous political affiliations. To say that both are wrong isonly to repeat what each has practically admitted a score of times, but the saying it brings them no nearer together. And yet it cannot be that there is no common ground upon which all can meet. Democratic principles are to succeed, if at all, not because they are Democratic, but because they are sound. If they deserve success, they are worthy of a far greater sacrifice than that involved either in abandoning a time-honored name or adopting an objectionable one. - Detroit Free Press

A Detroit hotel-keeper writes his own bill of fare thereby saving the cost of printing. It announces "Coffee, soupe, roste befe, fride ham, boyled and bakt potatys, fride coul puddi and mins pie."

Resolutions Adopted by the State Executive Committee of the Democratic-Conservative Party -Plan of Organization.

The State Executive Committee of the Democratic-Conservative party, held in this city on April the 16th, adopted the following resolutions and plan of organization. We give our hearty endorsement to the resolutions, and hope the recommendations to discourage all manner of disorganization in our ranks will be carried out to the fullest extent. We cannot have any independent action this Summer if we would succeed:

RESOLUTIONS Resolved, That we deeply sympa thize with the people of the West in their want of railroad facilities, and pledge oursel es to use every availaole means to secure the early completion of their projected lines.

Resolved, That the Republican party having despoiled the State of millions of dollars heretofore appropriated for railroad purposes, is un-worthy of public confidence, and that experience justifies the conclusion that if that party should be again entrusted with the administration of our internal improvements, its leaders would again prove recreant to their sacred trust, and would divert the publicfund to their private pur-

Resolved, That a wise policy die tates the adoption of such measures as may be necessary to increase the educational advantages of the children of North Carolina.

Resolved, That we earnestly recommend to the members of the Democratic-Conservative party to discourage independent candidates and all other disorganizers, and that all support be promptly withdrawn from every aspirant for office who shall oppose the regular nominees of our

Resolved, That we tender to the friends of Free Government our sincere congratulations at the triumph of the great principles of the Constitution as illustrated by the Democratic successes In the recent State and local elections.

PLAN OF ORGANIZATION. The following plan of organization of the Democratic-Conservative party was adopted: 1. The Executive Committee for the State shall consist as at present appointed, and shall have all the powers heretofore conferred upon it. 2. The Executive Committee for the Congressional and Judicial Districts shall continue as at present constituted, until regularly changed, and shall have general supervision of the affairs of the party in their respective districts.

3. In each county there shall be an Executive Committee composed of a Central Committee of not less than three members, and of at least one Committeeman from each township. This Committee shall, under direc tion of the County Convention, have entire control of county matters. It shall be their duty to see that all the details of the canvass are properly conducted: that the polls are attended by competent challengers, that each Conservative casts his ballot, and that no fraud is perpetrated at the election. They are particularly enjoined to take the necessary steps for the efficient organization of townships, and to seek by a wise administration to promote harmony and to inspire confidence.

4. All Executive Committees are properly chosen by the Conventions held for the respective territorial di visions; but if for any cause there should be a failure by the proper Convention to appoint an Executive Committee, then the State Executive Committee may supply the deficien-

5. Nominations for County officers and members of the General Assembly shall be made by County Conventions: for Town and Township officers, by town and township conventions; for members of Con-gress and Judicial officers by the District Conventions. 6. All Conventions shall be open. and due notice of the time and place of convening the same shall be given. The resignation of Col. Walter Clark, as a member of the Executive Committee on account of his removal from Halifax, was read and accepted, and Dr. H. E. T. Manning, of Weldon, was appointed to fill the vacan-cy, after which the following resolution was adopted:

CITY OF MEXICO, June 9.-Local custom duties imposed on goods going from one city to another within the territory of Mexico are to be abol-

All parties implicated in burning of alleged sorcerers in Jacoba are in prison. Four were arrested by the police and others have surrendered themselves. None of them can read except one, who is the village schoolmaster, who says the outrage would not have been perpetrated had not the Prefect sent orders to hurry up the execution.

London, June 9 .- A correspondent of the Times, in a letter to that journal from Vitoria, Spain, says Marshal Concha is marching against the Carlists in Navarre with every available means. Gen. Dorregay, commander of the Carlists, is already in a good position. An important action is expected to take place soon. PARIS, June 9 .- Archbishop Lan driot, of Rheims, is dead.

French Politics.

LONDON, June 9 .- The Times' correspondent at Paris telegraphs that it is expected that Dufure in a few days will ask the Committee on Constitu tional Laws to come to a vote on the first article of the bill, introduced May, 1873, providing that the Government consist of a Senate Chamber, House of Representatives and President of the Republic. If the Committee rejects the article, the Left Centre will move in the Assembly to refer a similar proposition to the new Commission. Should this fail the Left Centre, as a last resort, will move for a dissolution of the Assembly. In the event of any adverse votes, deputies belonging to all sections of the Left, may probably resign in masse.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, June 9th .- In the Senate, Allison, from the District of Columbia, on the Investigating Committee, reported a bill for the government of that District, which was placed on the calendar.

HOUSE-The votes on the Louisiana election case, were as follows First, that Pinchback is entitled to the seat prima facie. Lost without Second, that Sheridan was elected. Lost by 71 to 145. Third, that Pinchback was not elected. Lost by 94 to 121. Fourth, that the testimony does not show that either was elected, and that they may take further testimony. Carried without division.

Another Mine Disaster.

WILKESBARRE, PA., June 9 .- Last night an explosion occurred at Shaft Nanticake, burning three miners and setting fire to the breaker, which was soon destroyed. While fighting the flames some burning timbers fell upon William Vivian, killing him Hawley Walsh, Tom Lowell, Tom McMans, Henry Reimensnider and Loreaz Krebs of the gang, who were also engaged in fighting fire, were overcome by gas and had to be carried from the mine. The first two were insensible when brought to the fresh air, and have since died. The others are doing well.

Moore of the Cable Steamers.

PORTSMOUTH, June 9 .- The cable steamer Farraday is in port. She is forty-six hundred tons burden, the largest ever in these waters. Festivities rule the day aboard and ashore. The cable bouyed within ten miles of the shore. The deep sea cable is very strong but light, three tons to the mile. The shore endings are 21 inches in diameter, and weighing 18 tons to the mile.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES. FROM WASHINGTON.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, June 9 .- The Committee on Ways and Means visited Boston to-day. The Senate Military Committee agreed to postpone the consideration of the House bill for reorganization of the army till next session. The Conference Committee on the Freedmans Bank reached no conclusion. A delegation of Western tobacco manufacturers are here to protest against indiscriminate sale of loose tobacco by producers. The Committee on printing sustains Col. Clapp as public printer.

No Southern nominations in the House to-day. The Committee on Expenditures of the Department, Justice, through Sener the Chairman, to-day reported and passed the House bill abolishing the western district of Arkankas, and also the bills providing for all Clerks of the District and Circuit Courts of the United States shall give bonds hereafter not less than five nor more than twenty thousand dollars, and all Marshalls to give bonds not exceeding forty thousand dollars, and hereafter all Marshalls' accounts are to be approved in open Court before being paid by the Treasury. The Western District of Arkansas by report, has shown to have cost the Government three quarters of a million dollars in three years, and to have been a very stench in the nos-trils of the people of that country. SENATE—The bill for the re-organi-zation of the District government was reported, and comes up in a day or

The Judiciary Committee reported adversely on the Sutro Tunnel bill. West, from the Committee on Conference, of the Army Appropriation bill, made a report, which was adop-

Three Judges of the Court of Claims shall constitute a quorum.

The Moiety bill occupied the day.

House-After the Louisiana election case was disposed of, Sener, of Va., reported on the enormous frauds in the Western Judicial District of Arkansas. A bill to abolish the District was passed, and the Attorney-General was directed to institute an investigation, and to pay none of the pending accounts until after he reports to the House.

The Geneva Award bill was then discussed until adjournment. The vote is to be taken to-morrow.

Meeting of the Cotton Exchanges. AUGUSTA, GA., June 9.—Delegates to the Convention of Cotton Exchanges, which meets here to-morrow, have arrived from New York, Nashville, Memphis, Louisville and New Orleans. ### The Moses' Indictment Quashed.

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 9th .-Judge Graham has filed his decision upon the question whether Governor Moses is subject to indictment and trial by ordinary criminal process previous to impeachment by the Degislature. He holds that the action of Moses as charged in the indictment was in truth, official action, if it was misconduct or a crime, it was still official by him as Governor. It is therefore ordered that the indict ment for larceny as to Franklin J Moses, Jr., be quashed, and the case as to him be struck from the docket

Weather Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, June 9 .- For the South Atlantic and Gulf States, generally clear and warm weather, except in the Florida and Gulf coasts, outh and west winds and no decided change in the barometer, slight rain will prevail in the southern portion of the South Atlantic States.

Attempted Murder.

MEMPHIS, June 9 .- A dispatch from Sardis, Miss., says Mose Gregory, a negro, attempted to shoot his wife, but missed her and killed his 13 year old daughter. He admits the killing, but says he tried to kill his wife and would kill her yet.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked. "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BIT-TERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded pos-sessing the remarkable qualities of VIN-EGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to.
